Heritage Tour (no lunch) 08:30 – 13:30 hours

Hidden away among high-rise apartment towers and busy highways, the past lives on in the New Territories ... a living museum shaped by the rise and development of the so-called five great clans of Hong Kong (the Tang, Hau, Pang, Liu and Man). Taking in historic sites around the New Territories, the Heritage Tour brings to life the customs and cultures of these clans and provides a fascinating glimpse of Hong Kong's rich heritage.

Tai Fu Tai and Fan Tin Village - The opulent stately home built in 1865 by a scholar of the Man clan, Man Chung-luen, who was bestowed a little of Tai Fu (Mandarin) by The Qing Imperial government. Nearby is Fan Tin Village where the Man clan members dwell.

Lo Wai Walled Village and Tang Chung Ling Ancestral Hall – A photo stop will be made at the Lo Wai Walled Village, the first walled village built by the Tang clan. The site was also declared a monument in 1997. Nearby is the Tang's Ancestral Hall, built in the 16th century, for clan rituals & ancestor worship.

Lam Tsuen Wishing Tree – A big banyan tree that is popular among local villagers who come to burn joss sticks and make wishes under it.

Man Mo Temple dedicated to the gods Man (Literature) and Mo (Martial Arts). Nearby is the Tai Po Market which used to be the trading ground of food & goods around the New Territories and now is a thriving food market.

Cheung Chau Island Tour with Lunch 09:00 – 15:00 hours

The Cheung Chau Island Tour gives you the perfect opportunity to explore this beautiful island by foot and soak up the culture and traditions as well as visiting the historical sites. This tiny dumbbell-shaped island has a unique and fascinating cultural heritage.

Pak Tai Temple is dedicated to Pak Tai, a Taoist god also called the 'Supreme Emperor of the Dark Heaven'. Built in 1783, the temple's layout includes traditional Chinese elements such as ceramic figurines on the roof ridges, murals containing auspicious motifs and stone lions in the forecourt.

Tung Wan Beach & Rock Carving is a beautiful beach popular for swimming, windsurfing and canoeing. The 3,000-year-old Bronze-Age rock carvings are located near the water's edge and feature geometric graphics and abstract animal images, which are quite interesting.

Wooden Sampan Ride - take a 20-minute sampan ride and cruise around the typhoon shelter to see the old fishing community still living on their boats. The sampan carries you to West Bay and the famous Cheung Po Tsai Cave, the hideout of a famous local pirate!

Tin Hau Temple was built in the 17th Century. The temple attracts lots of followers and fisherfolk come to worship the Goddess of the Sea, especially during the annual Tin Hau Festival.
